

COVID-19 Update: One New Case Today

BY JOY SPRINGER | MAY 3, 2020 | CORONA VIRUS, TOP STORIES

A 55-year-old Barbadian male has tested positive for COVID-19, bringing the national count to 82.

The latest case, an employee of the National Assistance Board, came into contact with two known cases. He brings the number in isolation to 31.

No one was released from isolation today, so the number of recovered persons remains at 44. Seven persons have died.

Fifty-one tests were done by the Best-dos Santos Public Health Laboratory yesterday, and results were returned for 46.

The total number of tests done by the laboratory now stands at 2420.
