

COVID-19 Update: One New Case Today

BY BGIS | MAY 12, 2020 | CORONA VIRUS, TOP STORIES

A 31-year-old Barbadian male is the latest COVID-19 positive case in Barbados.

His case is currently being investigated by the Ministry of Health and Wellness, since he has no recent travel history nor can he be linked to any known contacts.

His was the only positive result among 177 tests conducted by the Best-dos Santos Public Health Laboratory yesterday.

There are now 85 cases of COVID-19 – 44 females and 41 males. The number of persons in isolation has moved to 21, while the number of recovered persons remains at 57. There have been seven deaths.

The public health laboratory has now completed 3185 tests.
