None of the 32 employees of the National Assistance Board who was tested for COVID-19 yesterday was positive.

A total of 234 workers out of 255 have now been tested, with six positive results. The remainder is expected to be tested today.

The Best-dos Santos Public Health Laboratory conducted 179 tests for COVID-19 yesterday, which were all negative. That brings the total number of tests conducted to 1930.

Eighty people have been confirmed with the viral illness, 39 of these have recovered and six have died. There are 35 people in isolation.
