

COVID-19 Update: No New Cases This Week

BY BGIS | MAY 30, 2020 | CORONA VIRUS, TOP STORIES

For the first time since the outbreak of COVID-19 in Barbados, there have been no new cases confirmed within a one-week period.

For the seventh straight day yesterday, the Best-dos Santos Public Health Laboratory reported that no one tested positive among the 118 tests that were conducted.

Meanwhile, nine people remain in isolation since no one will be released today. Since the first two cases on March 16, 92 people have been diagnosed and 76 have recovered. There have been seven deaths.

The public health laboratory has now completed 5,390 tests.
