

COVID-19 Update: Two People Leave Isolation Today

BY BGIS | JUN 17, 2020 | CORONA VIRUS, TOP STORIES

Two of the seven people currently in isolation at Harrison Point, St. Lucy, will leave that facility today after recovering from COVID-19.

No one tested positive for the viral illness yesterday out of the 134 tests conducted by the Best-dos Santos Public Health Laboratory. Seventy-eight tests were done at the request of the cruise liners berthed off Barbados.

The number of recovered persons has now risen to 85 and the number remaining in isolation stands at five. Of the 97 confirmed cases in Barbados, seven people have died.

The public health laboratory has completed 7,094 tests.
